Featured Wine List

By the Glass:

2017 La Collina Quaresimo Lambrusco from Italy

- 12 -

Autumn is upon us and we are looking to Emilia Romagna for their famous sparkling red wine, Lambrusco. La Collina's biodynamic and organic take is a beautiful expression of tradition, with notes of black currant, raspberry, firm earth expression, and pleasant tannins. Now's the time to kick back and crack open a "Brusci" with the boys.

By the Bottle:

2017 Birichino Scylla Red Blend from California

Originally - 85 - Now - 75 -

A feisty red blend sourcing Carignane vines from 1920, supplemented with 100-year-old Grenache and Mourvèdre. Like its serpentine name sake, this wine bites with high acidity, bold tannins, and bright fruit. All Scylla no Fylla

Sommelier's Choice:

N.V. Perrier-Jouët Grand Brut Champagne from Champagne, France

-95-

The Champagne house boasting over 200 years of production, with only seven cellar masters since planting. An ideal balance of fruit and elegant acidity, with finely knit flavors of poached apricot, toast, lemon preserves and spun honey. Bro, it's Champagne sourced from the most prestigious sites in the Champagne region, start the New Year right.
